Reasons for comment:
Comments:	The greenbelt land where the developers want to build these houses is in a narrow country land right near a special needs school and a primary school. The traffic around this area gets gridlocked and is dangerous for the children coming out of school. The junction with the parade of shops is dangerous and there isn't enough parking already. The loss of countryside and wife life habitat is great. It is not good for the environment and nature and will cause extra light and air pollution. The doctors and local hospital are at capacity already without dealing with the amount of extra people who will need their services. The A227 is a very busy road already without added vehicles using it.

Kind regards
