Reasons for comment:
Comments:	The outline presented here represents the barest information about the proposals. There is no information regarding the range of dwellings planned even in outline nor the additional services presented. This would suggest this second application for the development is no more than a paper exercise whilst the developers secure approval for the access. Of course if access is approved then it would be difficult for local representatives to have a meaningful say in what type of properties and services were provided and actually built. This is both too large and to nebulous take a sustainable decision.

Kind regards
