Reasons for comment:

Comments:	St Andrew's gardens has been spoilt for the members of the public. There is little river view left just a huge red hulk to look at. Even the notice board remains reminding us of the views that we used to enjoy. All there is to see is hidden. When the boat was open for the light evening the decks were closed and the view concealed. The river is there for residents and visitors to enjoy. The lighthouse vessel needs to be moved up river or over to Tilbury where there is plenty of space.
