| Reasons for comment: |  |
| Comments:            | The entrance from the development on to the A227 has no vision looking North because of the bend in the road. The A 227 is already unable to cope with the volume of traffic a great deal of which is very heavy goods vehicles. The pavements are not continuous and it is necessary to cross the road more than once if you wish to walk to the Green. |

Kind regards
