Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Totally inappropriate as development in this location. It would merge Meopham and Cobham. The traffic in Green lane would increase and the junction to the A227 is now very dangerous. It would also urbanise the village and is green belt land. I completely object to this poorly thought out development. If you want more development in Meopham build some flats on stilts in Meopham station car park. These could be for local people on modest incomes with parking still underneath, not the expensive houses that developers wish to build on the countryside.

Kind regards
