Reasons for comment:

Comments: From the map, it looks like the proposed extension will run from the join between [REDACTED] properties.

Will the guttering, drains and downpipes all be within their boundary line. [REDACTED]

Will there be damage [REDACTED] wall where the extension wall joins the house walls, eg [REDACTED] wall should not being used to key in the new blockwork.

Also daylight in [REDACTED] side return would also be affected detrimentally, turning it into a narrow tunnel.

I have been here since 1992 [REDACTED]

Kind regards
