Comments:

Seven previous applications for residential use have already been refused.
- The High Court ruling is permanent, meaning no residential development should be allowed.
- If this application is passed, it could set a dangerous legal precedent, making it easier for future applications in Gravesham and surrounding areas to succeed. This would undermine the High Court ruling and the Council's past refusals, opening the floodgates to further unauthorised development across the region. The Council has the power to enforce this Order and remove all illegal dwellings immediately
