Reasons for comment:

Comments:	seriously this can not go ahead - this is the heritage quarter its already full of takeaways and nail bars! it will also mean another pub bites the dust in gravesend - this place when open was always busy. soon there will be nothing but nail bars and takeaway places in gravesend - the council are slowly but surely killing this town and its heritage. isn't the market being turned into a food place so how can it be justified that this is as well. please dont allow this to keep happening
