

Hello Ethan,

To follow up on our previous discussion, the Applicant has confirmed that the bottling plant will be hired on an annual basis for a low number of weeks, likely 1-2 per annum. The plant is expensive, and its operational waste if retained on site year-round, unused. I can therefore confirm there will be no permanent bottling facilities within the proposed winery building.