Commenter Type:	Neighbour
Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I object to the above application as being inappropriate so close to green belt land. Planning permission made some years ago for a dwelling to be built on the site was refused for that reason. Although the application is pending a decision in January the applicant has already had electricity installed and a large mobile home was delivered this week. Apparently it is already occupied. This does not comply with planning regulations.

Kind regards
