Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I object to this application. It is wrong that a group of people feel as though they are above the law. They have destroyed trees over 100 years old, burnt out a caravan on the road, they already have caravans illegally on this site, and now they want to apply for permission? If this would a regular member of the public they would've been fined / arrested / removed. They have only caused disruption and destruction since being here. I strongly suggest to look into this and deny this application.

Kind regards
