Reasons for comment:
Comments:	The plan to make the The Woodlands into a McDonald's seem most inappropriate to me for several reasons 1. The rubbish that will be left in and around Woodlands Park will spoil this much used and lovely park. 2. What is essentially a free outing will be more difficult to sustain as children beg to go the McDonalds after playing. 3. Parking and Wrotham Road will be more congested than it already is by a busy set of traffic lights on a main road in and out of town. 4. The government recommends that fast food outlets should be avoided close to schools and this is close to St George's School and for their own health students do not need to be frequent customers here. 5. Do we need yet another fast food outlet in a borough already home to too many obese and unfit children and adults?

Kind regards
