Reasons for comment:
Comments:	The change of use would have a big impact on the people living in the street with loud prayers at all hours and we cannot park as it is. I am married to a person who prays in a mosque and nobody walks there! This is not fair to have such noise from prayers at all hours in a street where people live. 65 people trying to park is not right in a street for residential purposes. I did not buy my house to live near a mosque.

Kind regards
