Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I strongly oppose the decision to turn the historic Peacock Pub in Gravesend into a Mosque. This is not only a deeply inappropriate use of a beloved local landmark, but it also disregards the will and wellbeing of the community. The Peacock has long been a symbol of local heritage and social life, not a site to be stripped of its identity and repurposed without genuine consultation. Gravesend deserves investment in housing, services, and community cohesion - not short-sighted decisions that risk inflaming tensions and erasing our shared spaces. Let's respect the character of our town and work together for sustainable, community-driven solutions

Kind regards
