Reasons for comment:
Comments:	How is it possible that planning permission would be required for the proposed development which is already an illegal settlement protected by a High Court Injunction? Based on the information provided the scheme would be unacceptable as the Site and dwellings would be extended substantially over and above the limitations allowed in the Green Belt policies and would erode the simple, rural and symmetrical character. What impacts assessments have been carried out to determine future occupiers, neighbouring amenity and parking provision and highway safety? What Ecological assessments have been carried out? What is being done about the destruction of the trees along Whitepost Lane that enabled the occupation of this land to take place? How is this application compliant with local and national validation requirements? How is it allowed that new dwellings and occupation of land can be installed outside the village boundary?

Kind regards
