Summary

For any future planning application, it will be important to demonstrate the ancillary nature of the annex and the links to and reliance on the main dwelling. On this basis, the proposal would be likely to be considered acceptable from design, amenity and parking perspectives and would be considered favorably if submitted for planning permission.

In response to the above:-

The proposed Annex plan clearly identifies a Lounge which has a small kitchenette space for tea making. All meals will be prepared in the extended kitchen of the main house, demonstrating the ancillary nature of the annex.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

☒ No

* "owner" is a person with a freehold interest or leasehold interest with at least 7 years left to run.
