(c)	where the enlarged part of the dwellinghouse has more than a single storey, or forms an upper storey on an existing enlargement of the original dwellinghouse, the roof pitch of the enlarged part must, so far as practicable, be the same as the roof pitch of the original dwellinghouse.	N

Officer Analysis

The proposed partial garage conversion is not prohibited by any existing planning conditions to the original dwelling and so the proposed conversion is deemed lawful.

The single storey rear extension is also a lawful addition as it falls within the parameters of Schedule 2, Part 1, Classes A of The Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015 which allow for a semi detached dwelling to extend a dwelling at single storey level by 3m subject to conditions.

Conclusion

The proposed development falls within Schedule 2, Part 1, Classes A of The Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015, as amended. Therefore planning permission is not required and a Lawful Development Certificate can be granted.

Recommendation: Grant Lawful Development Certificate
