Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:
Comments:	There is not much open country/farm land left and to destroy more would lead to even more pollution and loss of wild life that is already decreasing, more properties and people will cause even more devastation. The village cannot sustain the amount of people and vehicles at present, there's constant flooding and traffic jams. There's not enough facilities to accommodate more people and the infrastructure isn't there.

Kind regards
