Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:
Comments:	The revised plan submitted does still not in my opinion address the objections raised previously in that the planned development is an overdevelopment of an existing site with the development being out of character with the existing buildings and the creation of a additional dwelling will generate additional issues in terms of parking and traffic in a very small residential close that has reduced areas for street parking so additional vehicles using the road will create more issues for existing residents.

Kind regards
