| Comments: | I hope this message finds you well. I wanted to raise a small concern regarding the proposed garden extension. While I do not wish to object fully, I would like to note that the extension will slightly reduce the natural light and open view from our property, especially as the existing tree at the rear already limits visibility. I completely understand you may wish to improve your home, and I'm not against the development overall. I simply ask that the impact on our outlook is taken into consideration, and that any opportunity to minimise the loss of light or view is explored. Thank you for your understanding, and I'm happy to discuss this amicably. |
