Comments:

The devastation caused by this is disgraceful. My horses have been stabled at Nurstead Court for over 12 years. I have driven and ridden down a his lane most days for it the now become a danger.

In 2009, a High Court injunction was issued by Mr Justice Saunders (Case No. HQ09X02792) prohibiting ANY residential use of this land. This Order was placed by Gravesham Borough Council against 12 Defendants, including "Persons Unknown", meaning it applies to all future owners and occupiers of the land - including Mr M Shilling, who is now in breach of the injunction.

Despite this clear legal ruling, caravans have been placed on the land recently. Trees and surrounding land have been damaged and destroyed. The Council has been informed recently that they are damaging and destroying trees and the surrounding area. The Council has been informed recently and recently, yet the illegal development continues!

This is about protecting our community, upholding the law, and stopping illegal land use in Gravesham and surrounding areas.

Kind regards
