Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☒ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Details of the pre-application advice received

- The proposal would be considered to be appropriate development in the Green Belt. As such, the proposal would be in line with paragraph 154(c) of the NPPF 2024, Policy CS02 of the Gravesham Local Plan Core Strategy (2014) and Saved Policy C13 of the Gravesham Local Plan Core Strategy (2014).
- The proposed development would be broadly appropriate in design, would not be detrimental to the character or appearance of the surrounding landscape and would be in line with Policies CS12 and CS19 of the Gravesham Local Plan Core Strategy (September 2014).
- Careful consideration should be given to the proposed external facing materials, so that they are of good quality and match with the existing buildings on the plot.
- The proposal would not be detrimental to the residential amenity of future or surrounding occupiers and would be in line with Policy CS19 of the Gravesham Local Plan Core Strategy (September 2014).
- Any future planning application should set out the number of bedrooms in the dwelling at the application site, show all existing and proposed parking spaces (both internal and external) and show that the required number of on-site parking spaces can be provided.
- The proposal has the potential for adverse impacts to protected species and habitats and there is likely to be a need for ecological mitigation and enhancement. Any future application should address these issues via appropriate ecological surveys and mitigation proposals as required.
- The proposal would deliver renewable energy and reduced energy consumption.
- Any future planning application should include all foul and surface water drainage details, ideally incorporating SUDS and ensure that the proposal would have no adverse impacts to groundwater quality or supply.
- The proposal would have no adverse impacts on archaeology or the alignment/use of Public Right of Way NS227.
- The drawings submitted with any future planning application should only include the curtilage of the dwelling as the application site (shown with a red line boundary), any other land owned by the applicant (shown with a blue line boundary) and should include existing and proposed block plans (at 1:200 or 1:500 scale) showing all built development located at the application site both before and after the proposed development.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- ☐ Yes
- ☒ No

Ownership Certificates and Agricultural Land Declaration

Certificates under Article 14 - Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended)

Please answer the following questions to determine which Certificate of Ownership you need to complete: A, B, C or D.

Is the applicant the sole owner of all the land to which this application relates; and has the applicant been the sole owner for more than 21 days?

- ☒ Yes
- ☐ No

Is any of the land to which the application relates part of an Agricultural Holding?

- ☐ Yes
- ☒ No

Certificate Of Ownership - Certificate A

I certify/The applicant certifies that on the day 21 days before the date of this application nobody except myself/ the applicant was the owner* of any part of the land or building to which the application relates, and that none of the land to which the application relates is, or is part of, an agricultural holding

* "owner" is a person with a freehold interest or leasehold interest with at least 7 years left to run.

 "agricultural holding" has the meaning given by reference to the definition of "agricultural tenant" in section 65(8) of the Act.

NOTE: You should sign Certificate B, C or D, as appropriate, if you are the sole owner of the land or building to which the application relates but the land is, or is part of, an agricultural holding.
