| Comments: | This is a green belt site that was land locked , yet the council felt fit to allow the owner to open a new entrance onto Whitepost lane on the narrow one way part of the road . No one would be able to change an existing entrance in Whitepost without application and sight lines being considered let alone a new opening, so why did this happen? Trees have been destroyed and we have a builders yard which is noisy with commercial vehicles coming and going in a residential area. So I object to an application for a dwelling - which means someone will live there! And amazed it is even being considered , I would like an explanation of what is intended for this land and detail of this dwelling |
