Commenter Type:	Neighbour
Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:
Comments:	This is clearly a deliberate breach of planning regulations. The retrospective applications and the appeals are all used to delay proper council enforcement and for those occupying the sites, to 'game the system'. The travellers have displayed zero respect for the green belt land, the surrounding area and the neighbourhood. For those of us who have followed the council planning process, to the letter of the law, we urge the council to act in order to protect this site

Kind regards
