Reasons for comment:
Comments:	We do not want this to happen - these people who they will move in will cause major problems - they are not vetted and should not be in this country - they have already built a massive extension with windows looking down over our garden and kitchen - I'm sure this is illegal ?? Also there is no parking down there road so they will park in my road which is already happening with the people that are doing the house up - the work they are doing needs investigating as I'm sure there breaking many building regs - can you please arrange a visit from council inspectors

Kind regards
