Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I object most strongly to any building work at this location. This village of Meopham is the longest in England and that does not mean that it needs expanding. Any building on farmland is not acceptable in this current climate. Environmentally damaging and the easy option. This part of Meopham is a high traffic area with the parade of shops opposite already causing parking issues, it is impossible to see how a housing estate nearby exacerbating the chaos already occurring daily.

Kind regards
