Reasons for comment:
Comments:	The vast scale of the building of 725 homes by Camer Park, is totally unacceptable. How this is Grey Belt land, I do not know. The detriment to wildlife, bats, badgers, birds would be terrible. The amount of traffic passing through Meopham is already at capacity. When any roadworks are in operation, there can be delays up to one hour, on the A227. More cars, more potholes. Heavy lorry's passing through whilst the building of the houses causing more chaos. Local shops already at capacity. Trying to park at Camer parade is virtually impossible. Schools are full. Doctors full, with long waiting times. There is no network to support these changes. How anybody can think it is a good idea, I don't know.. There will also be more Lorries passing through to the lorry Park at the bottom of Wrotham Hill, which has been given the go ahead. More green belt land taken. How much more of the countryside do you want to ruin.

Kind regards
