Reasons for comment:
Comments:	The local area does not have the car parking available to support regular usage by members of the public traveling from outside the immediate area. It's usage as a pub has also cultural significance to the community and should be kept as such to prevent further separation of the local community since it makes us locals who wouldn't use the new building feel even more pushed out of what has been our home for years. I understand the need for religious structures but not at the expense of making the locals feel unwelcome in their own home.

Kind regards
