Reasons for comment:

Comments:	Dear Sir, Yet another unbelievable proposal to introduce even more traffic to an already congested area. Turning from Green Lane onto the A227 is already a long wait at peak times. Add another junction and 150 families with cars and it will become impossible. People living at the Western end of Norwood Lane would also have to queue since their access from the Cobham and Sole Street side would be blocked. A bad proposal for many reasons. Dreamers who say Public Transport is an option do not seem to live in the real world. Many workers do shift work, need to carry tools, do not wish to sit on a bus for much of the day while it meanders round various housing estates on its way to their destination, especially if being paid by the hour! Stop these ridiculous developments now, Meopham is a village, not part of London.

Kind regards
