Reasons for comment:

Comments: Thank you for notifying the Council for British Archaeology (CBA) of this application.

We have no comments to make on the above-ground heritage impacts of this proposal. However, we note that the site location is within an Area of Archaeological Potential, and we therefore recommend that an appropriate condition related to archaeological mitigation is agreed with your local planning authority's archaeological officer prior to any permission being granted.

Kind Regards,

Dr Alison Edwards
Listed Buildings Caseworker

The Council for British Archaeology (CBA) is the national amenity society concerned with protection of the archaeological interest in heritage assets. Local planning authorities have a duty to notify the CBA of applications for listed building consent involving partial or total demolition, under the procedures set out in, 'Arrangements for handling heritage applications - notification To Historic England and National Amenity Societies and the Secretary of state (England)' direction 2021.

Kind regards
