Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I really do not have strong objections per se. What really concerns me is the lack of infrastructure in Meopham. The doctor's surgery is full, school places are hard to come by. You can barely park at the shops. Also is there a guarantee that the houses won't be bought piecemeal by London C.C. and used as overflow for their surplus of population ? (as they seem to have elsewhere. Added to that is the extra traffic on the A227 which becomes jammed if there are accidents on the M2 or M20. Really, it's the provision of infrastructure commensurate wigh the number of houses which is my main concern. 500 houses equals 1000 cars, probably 1500plus people

Kind regards
