Reasons for comment:
Comments:	The number of houses proposed is far too high. This will have a massive negative effect on our environment and outlook we pay premium for by living here. The roads, doctors, parking for local shops will become even worse. The build would last years and the pollution including dust will harm people. The number of heavy trucks and Lorries will damage the already potholed A227 and most likely will want to go onto the smaller road which aren't built for Lorries. The peaceful environment will become stressful, dangerous and is not necessary. Gravesham has built many houses on land that doesn't affect as many for various reasons so I object to building this quantity of houses

Kind regards
