Reasons for comment:
Comments:	There is enough crowding in this area , the shops are inaccessible at the parade , A227 is always flat out with traffic as it is , adding extra flow from a average of 1300 extra cars certainly wont help . This is a relativley quite village compaired to closer gravesend , i for one feel where is the peace for the people who pay highly inflated taxes to live here and then you are proposing building a lot of properties , If thats the case then if this goes through then we should have our counxil taxes reduced for one. Also we have a very poor law service here , police services are a rare site , the more the population the more likley you will bring more of a criminal intent to the area and without the police it will be a free for all, the station was closes about 12 years ago , so what about a new drop in police station slap bang in the middle of proposed . I for one am dead against this proposal

Kind regards
