Comments:

I am writing to formally object to the proposed change of use from a public house to a Muslim place of worship ,While I respect the right to practice faith, I have concerns regarding potential increases in traffic, noise, and the impact on the local community.

Converting this public house may lead to challenges with parking demand and public safety due to increased congregational activity in our predominantly residential area. Additionally, there may be implications for local businesses and the character of the neighborhood.

Thank you for considering my objections.

Kind regards
