Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I don't agree with these people illegally moving on to greenbelt and then applying for retrospective planning permission. This is totally unfair on local residents whom abide by the law and planning regulations in this area. The emotional and mental stress this is putting on local residents is unfair and should be a consideration with planning and with the government inspectorate whom have recently given permission for a family to stay even though the father is a convicted criminal. The devastation caused to the lane which is still on going should be stopped and the legislation as to retrospective planning should be changed.

Kind regards
