Comments:

I can see very little difference in terms of the impact on the environment/danger to traffic to th last plans which were (quite rightly) rejected, apart from there being one fewer large dwelling of course.

As I stated previously, we already have difficulty exiting [REDACTED] driveway and this will only make it worse.

One of the houses is planned to be practicaly on top of the neighbouring house which surely can'y be allowed.

The noise and disruption during the building will be unbearable, even to us, a few doors away.

I feel that any plans to increase the number of houses in this rural lane should not be allowed.

[REDACTED]

Kind regards
