Reasons for comment:

Comments: Over 700 properties with (likely) multiple car access to and from Wrotham Road? A road that is already completely overstretched in terms of peak time traffic and will be one of the main routes linking the M20 to the new Lower Thames Crossing? Once again greenbelt land is being prioritised and the fact that it will merge two villages of Meopham and Sole Street seems to be no longer a factor. We all know that this is not to satisfy local needs, it is primarily to satisfy London overspill and those requiring a commuter service to London so the additional population will need doctors, dentists, local hospitals and secondary schools that at the moment simply do not have capacity. I strongly object to this.

Kind regards
