Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I strongly object, having moved from the city to a rural town I love the greenery here. I live on a lane which is used as a "short cut" through to another village and our lane is already really busy ... more housing would surly result in busier lane causing havoc!! Schools are already full to capacity and hard enough to get doctor's appointments as it is!!! I worry about our environment and the impact of more housing would have.... Our village would end up like a town centre...

Kind regards
