Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I have lived in meopham for over 20 years and in that time the village has got busier and busier. The Wrotham road is very rarely quiet anymore. You can't get parked at Wrotham parade for love nor money , trying to get a doctors appointment is near impossible and the chaos that is caused by Meopham Secondary school when 500 odd additional cars come into the village is an absolute joke. How the infrastructure of this village is supposed to cope with that many extra houses is beyond me ! Surely we need to sort what we have a make it fit for current residents before we start adding more

Kind regards
