Reasons for comment:
Comments:	[REDACTED] in Luddesdown/Meopham. The current proposed planning of a massive amount of new houses will ruin the lives of those still living in the area. The Green Belt was supposed to keep precious areas GREEN. Once arable land is destroyed by new housing, it is gone forever. Ecosystems that have been there for generations will be destroyed & will never return, no matter how many "landscaping trees! are planted. The roads/doctors/schools infrastructure cannot cope now, let alone in the urban future. The urban sprawl of Gravesham into Meopham/Cobham/Luddesdown is a disgrace.

Kind regards
