Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Too many houses in the area already ...A227 cannot take the amount of traffic these houses will generate . We need to keep some spaces of greenland , not concrete everywhere in Kent. Kent is too crowded now , with no extra facilities being made available . Yes , I'm just a resident but I have to try and a GP appointment . I have to try and cross the A227 ,try to get my child into the local school " Normal"everyday life , which is difficult enough now , without extra housing . Definitely against further development in this area .

Kind regards
