Reasons for comment:
Comments:	This is utterly ridiculous; this area is so busy already, the schools can barely cope, the surrounding roads get gridlocked. Trying to get out onto the A227 as it is can take a long time. There is insufficient infrastructure (limited buses, no coaches into London, the trains are nearly unaffordable and again limited parking). The area is meant to be protected and all these submissions for planning and the green light for wiping out more space to reduce traffic around Dartford tunnel. It's all too much.

Kind regards
