Reasons for comment:
Comments:	We are in support of our neighbours renovation plans. There will not be any inconvenience or obstruction to us or the neighbourhood so far as concerned. We welcome our neighbours to improve their properties and take care of their homes internally and externally. The usage is private and not commercial, others have done similar projects on the Crescent. They are adding toileting and kitchen facilities to the space, suitable for their large family and an improvement to Gravesham stock/property portfolio. Don't see what the issue is or why we should discourage our neighbours from raising the profile, quality of the homes on the street. Maintaining their property instead of disrepair etc. Please allow this family to
