Reasons for comment:

Comments:	I am a resident of the DA12 area and would like to support the planning application for the outbuilding at No. 42. The additions made-a small shower, toilet, and kitchenette-are reasonable and incidental to the approved use as a home office and gym. The intended purpose of the building has not changed, and it will not be used as sleeping accommodation or a separate dwelling. These facilities help the family, especially during their extension works, and do not negatively affect the area. [REDACTED] Their concerns do not reflect the actual use of the outbuilding. The building remains ancillary to the main house.
