Reasons for comment:
Comments:	[REDACTED] no. 20250074. My concerns are over the boundary line that's marked out on the application, this gives me no right of way of entry [REDACTED] property.the boundary line is not correct. I see he intends putting his main door on the front face of his house, and there are no measurements of the side extension this would block out more natural light between both houses .also how does he gain access to his back garden if he is building to the boundary line [REDACTED].

Kind regards
