Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I feel this is an inappropriately large development for this village, the population of Meopham at the last census was 6,795, a additional of 750 dwellings would increase the population by at least 20%. There is not the infrastructure nor the road links to cope with a development of this size. The development would cause Sole Street and Meopham to be connected and become one large urban sprawl as opposed to village. The rail links are often touted as being a justification, however, there is inadequate parking and the A227 is too dangerous to cycle, I did this for [REDACTED] years and was fearful for my safety on many occasions, particularly in rush hour, the addition of thousands of cars / delivery vehicles would make this road a death trap.

Kind regards
