Reasons for comment:

Comments: MacDonalds aim these establishments in low income areas near schools and this is no exception.

Children do not go for salads as MacDonalds try to justify their offerings with their idea of healthy alternatives, because in the main, people order unhealthy fast food as that is what MacDonalds is renowned for.

its going to attract hoards of schoolkids along a busy residential area and the mess is going to be insufferable for residents of Wrotham Road and surrounding areas including Woodlands Park with noise and litter.

There is also an anti social aspect that there is historically fighting and gang trouble around the existing MacDonalds in Gravesend town and it is not fair to subject the residents of that highly residential property area to potential rubbish and antisocial behaviour, parking issues, noise and bright lighting disturbing their peace at all hours.

We do not need another MacDonalds in this area as there are two already - it makes no sense.

What we needed was more of a like for like restaurant serving proper meals not fast food unhealthy, obesity promoting excuse for food.

Please GBC rethink this ... it is mayhem in the making

Kind regards
