Reasons for comment:

Comments:	At this stage and based on the information provided, I am not in an informed enough position to either support or object. Without knowing the nature of the care, I cannot assess the potential threat to safety of my family and disruption to the surrounding area. If these are children who are simply in need of a home as they do not have legal guardians, then I would be in support of this. If however they are children who will be placed in this property as rehabilitation/an alternative to prison for instance, and they have previous history of violence, I would firmly and inflexibly object as I must think of my own child's safety. I appreciate that many details will be confidential but the current information does not provide enough context for any resident to make an informed decision. Should no further information be possible, I will need to lean to the side of caution and object the home. Many thanks for your understanding [REDACTED]
