Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I object to this proposal. Wrotham road is such a busy road, especially at school time and rush hour, it couldn't handle the extra traffic this would cause. Plus when there is a problem with the road there are no suitable diversions to avoid it. When the lower Thames crossing is built even more traffic will end up coming through meopham. Driving past the parade of shops is already dangerous as there is a blind spot.

Kind regards
