Reasons for comment:
Comments:	A masjid and madrasah are deeply beneficial for the community because they provide both spiritual guidance and educational support in one space. The masjid acts as a hub where people come together for prayer, fostering unity, peace, and mutual support among community members. It also hosts events, charity drives, and counseling services that address the community's needs. The madrasah, plays a vital role in nurturing the next generation by teaching Islamic knowledge, good character, and life values in a structured way. Together, they help reduce social problems by promoting moral conduct, strengthen family ties through shared learning, and build a more cohesive, spiritually connected, and resilient community.

Kind regards
